

Attend Marina District Meet

A Marina District, CFWC meeting was held at the El Segundo Woman's club on Nov. 30 with 87 guests present.

Attending from the Torrance Club were Mrs. John Thuss, president; Mrs. J. P. Bay, first vice president; Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, drama chairman; Mrs. R. S. Russell, Indian Affairs; Mrs. D. P. LeGalley, literature section; Mrs. L. A. McCoy, federation extension secretary; and Mrs. H. L. Michell, garden chairman and president's aide for District 18.

Nine workshops were held throughout the day. Mrs. John Thuss introduced the afternoon speaker, Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, district garden chairman.

Rosato-Salce Nuptials Read at St. Anthony's

St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church was beautifully decorated with baskets of white blossoms and candles for the 10 o'clock nuptial mass on Saturday, Nov. 21, when Miss Josephine Rosato plighted her marriage vows with Anthony Salce. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Josephine Rosato, 16210 S. Haas St., Torrance. Mrs. Pauline Kankowski is the mother of the bridegroom.

Frank Rosato escorted his sister to the altar. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The gown has a scoop neckline of scalloped lace and long pointed sleeves. From an empire bow at the waistline fell a flowing satin skirt forming a chapel train. A flat headpiece of satin petals held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and phalaenopsis.

Mrs. Antoinette Mandella served as the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Pat Caron and Nancy Cunningham. They were gowned in green velvet sheath dresses and each carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Sal Gregorio stood as best man and Rev. J. Mihan officiated at the mass and marriage. Nuptial music was played by Miss Eileen Wood.

A reception was held at the church and the couple spent a honeymoon at Las Vegas and Big Bear.

The bride was graduated from Conaty High school and her husband is a graduate of Huntington Park High.

... Ann Landers

I agree with your sister-in-law that it's rude to walk into a home and shout "Yoo-hoo—I'm here." In fact, I'll go even further and say it's inconsiderate to drop in without first phoning and giving the hostess a fighting chance.

Dear Ann: I'm 26 and have been going with a girl who is 23 for two years. I've given her the same engagement ring four times. She has given it back to me four times. I have the ring now and she wants me to hand it over again.

We fight about unimportant things such as which movie to see or whether to double date or not, and then she ends up throwing the ring in my face.

Last August, after a fight, I took out another girl. She carried on like a maniac, wouldn't eat for three days and lost five pounds. Her mother finally phoned me. Yet when I ask her to set a wedding date she says she needs more time. Also, she has dated fellows behind my back and lied about it.

Shall I give her the ring once more and tell her this is the last chance? — RINKY DINK

Dear Rinky: This girl doesn't want you, but she doesn't want anyone else to have you either. She's already had four strikes which is one more than she's entitled to. I say next batter up.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANY LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Hess-Warne Nuptials Are Read in Military Ceremony

In a military ceremony at 2 o'clock on Sunday, Nov. 22, at the Marine Corps Depot chapel in San Diego, Miss Carolyn Sue Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Hess, 1445 W. 214th St., Torrance, became the bride of Sgt. Clarence Delaine Warne. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eva Warne of Pueblo, Colo.

Mr. Hess escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore the Marine Blue dress uniform and carried a white Bible topped by a large white orchid.

Miss Lois Jean Hess, wearing blue organza over blue taffeta, was her sister's maid of honor.

Miss Irene Medrano served as bridesmaid. She was gowned in yellow organza over taffeta. Both of the attendants carried Colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

Miss June Hess was the flower girl and Bobby Hook carried the rings.

Robert Fisk stood as the best man and Sgt. James Giles was usher.

Chaplain Burke of the United States Navy officiated at the marriage.

Serving as sword bearers were S/Sgt. R. C. Burgess, Sgt. William Sterling, Sgt. G. L. Dorst, Cpl. I. Fields, Cpl. P. Delongchamp and Cpl. D. L. Blackstone.

The couple is spending a honeymoon in Pueblo, Colo., visiting the bridegroom's mother.

Cooperative School Plans Workshop

Torrance Cooperative Nursery School will hold an evening workshop on Monday, Dec. 14 for its parent members who will paint, repair and replace equipment, instruments, and furniture.

Proceeds from the recent theater party will help toward repairing and replacing materials for the nursery school which serves 25 children from the ages of three to five years. Each family participates in maintaining the school and in studying child behavior through discussion groups and speakers. In addition, each mother acts as a teacher once a week at the school, which operates Monday through Thursday mornings.

Arrangements may be made to visit while school is in session. Anyone interested in the school program or enrollment may call Mrs. Dewey French or Mrs. Tom Miller. The nursery school is directed by Mrs. Milton Barter and is sponsored by the Torrance Adult Education.

AAUW Annual Yule Tea at Moudry Home

Traditional yuletide decorations will form a background for the annual Christmas tea to be given Sunday, Dec. 13, by the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch.
